VOCABULARY Homes (adjectives)

I can use adjectives for describing homes.

1 Read the article and answer the questions.

- 1 Why did Luke and Amy choose to live in a 'skooly'?
- 2 Why is it important for the skooly to be organized?
- 3 Why do you think Amy says every day is 'a new adventure'?

Tiny homes

This week: Life on the road with Amy and Luke

When you think of a school bus, you don't usually think of a place to live. But a converted school bus, or a 'skooly', has to be the coolest home on wheels.

'We didn't feel ready to settle down and a traditional home is expensive,' says Luke. 'A skooly was the perfect solution. They're a lot cheaper and you can live and work anywhere.'

A ten metre-long school bus is, you guessed it, quite narrow. But once you step inside, it feels a lot bigger and, with windows on both sides, it's never gloomy.

'We use e-readers, tablets and laptops to save space,' Amy says, 'but we've also got a cupboard full of board games!'

'Everything has to be organized, so we don't have too much stuff,' adds Luke. 'It's easy to make the place look cluttered. So, there are plenty of cupboards for storage.'

Luke and Amy are both great at DIY and most of their wooden furniture is re-purposed. They even made the curtains from recycled material.

They live off-grid and get all their energy from solar panels on the roof and a four-battery power bank. At the back is an indoor space with bikes, kayaking gear ... and more cupboards!

'OK, so a skooly is kind of basic,' says Luke, 'but it's nice and cosy.'

Amy agrees. 'We love it! Every day is a new adventure!'

2 Find words in bold in the article that mean:

- 1 carefully arranged, ordered
- 2 a small distance from side to side
- 3 comfortable and relaxing
- 4 in the way things have been done for a long time
- 5 simple; with only the necessary things
- 6 dark or poorly-lit
- 7 something which has been used before; reused
- 8 located inside

3 1.1 Match adjectives a-h with their opposites in Exercise 2. Then listen, check and repeat.

- | | | |
|-----------------|----------------|-------------|
| a light | d up-to-date | g brand-new |
| b uncomfortable | e outdoor | h luxurious |

- 2 1.2 Read and listen to the article and check your ideas. Were you right?
- 3 Read the article again and answer the questions.
 - 1 What are the Mongolian steppes like?
 - 2 Why were horses so important to nomads?
 - 3 Why are motorbikes widely used?
 - 4 Why do nomads keep few possessions?
 - 5 Which item of modern technology is the most popular? Why?
 - 6 What does Olly find magical about nomadic life?

- 4 Word Power Find five adjectives in the article to describe shapes. Then make a list of more shape adjectives.

FUN FACT

If you see a hat in Mongolia, don't touch it! Hats are a sign of good luck and are treated with respect. People don't put them on the ground, swap them or throw them away!

- 5 THINK CRITICALLY Do you think the traditional nomadic lifestyle (in Mongolia) can survive in the 21st century? Give reasons.

HI-TECH AND TRADITION IN MONGOLIA

by Olly Martin

Outside Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia's capital, lies a landscape of rock and grass. For 1,000 km in any direction, there are no trees or fences. With my guide, Batbayar, we drove across these empty steppes in search of the Mongolians who still lead a nomadic life. Temperatures range from -30°C in the winter to 25°C in the summer, so people move with their homes and animals to cooler highlands in the summer and warmer lowlands in the winter. But what I wanted to know was how these people were adapting to the 21st century.

When we arrived at a small community about 200 km east of the capital, some men were riding motorbikes and herding their sheep and goats. Horses used to be at the centre of nomadic culture. They provided transport, meat and milk. These days the motorbike, which is inexpensive to run, is king.

An old man invited us into his traditional ger, or yurt, a circular tent with a triangular roof and walls made from sheep's wool. The single room, ten metres in diameter, was cosy but hardly luxurious. There was no bathroom or running water and a square outdoor box was the fridge. When you carry your home with you, it's important not to have many possessions!

Our host's daughter was cooking over a stove in the middle of the floor. We were talking when some friends arrived. Yurts are public places, always open to guests. While we were all eating, two girls were playing games on mobile phones. Phones are also essential for keeping in touch with relatives in the city. 'How did they use to keep in touch before mobile phones?' I wondered to myself.

However, the most common example of technology isn't mobile phones; it's rectangular solar panels. One panel can charge a phone or power an LED light bulb. During the long winter nights, an indoor light can be very comforting! Obviously, nomads didn't use to have these things in the past, but they're now essential survival tools.

While I was lying on my bed that night, I could hear the wind blowing outside. I looked up through the round hole in the roof and saw the stars. I realized this contact with nature is the magic of the nomadic life.

SABRYNA

Life in sunny Jamaica is awesome! We live in Montego Bay, in a nice house, in a tree-lined neighbourhood. 'We' is me, my mum and dad, my sister and brother. We've got a basement and a garden with a trampoline, which is where I de-stress. We've got a big extended family – grandparents, aunts, uncles – and I see them a lot. It's always lots of fun. I've also got cousins in Britain, who I really want to visit. I'm a normal teenager – I like hanging out in my bedroom, listening to music and going to the beach with my friends. My parents are quite strict and hate to see me 'doing nothing'. So, I help with chores – cooking, making beds, setting the table, washing dishes. I don't mind.

JAMAICA is the largest English-speaking Caribbean island. Most of the population have ancestors from Africa.

RORY

I'm from Scotland and I live in a castle. OK, I live in a small cottage in a village with my mum, my dad and two brothers. It's isolated, but we've got stunning views of the mountains. Our home is super cosy; we've got a huge stone fireplace in the living room, and we've always got a fire burning during the cold winters. I love gaming, but here in the countryside, the broadband speed isn't very fast. In summer, my friends and I do loads of cycling, canoeing, hiking and climbing. It's light until 11.00 p.m. here in the north! How cool is that? Our house gets disorganized with all our outdoor gear and there isn't much storage space! We're very welcoming in Scotland – our door's always open. So, I hope you'll come to dinner and try our national dish, haggis!

SCOTLAND is one of the countries that forms the United Kingdom and has got English as its main language.

KANA

The majority of Aussies live in cities, and so do I! My mum and I live in an ordinary house in the suburbs of Sydney. I love summertime. From October to March, I spend my free time on the beach with friends, surfing or swimming. Otherwise, I do typical teen stuff like checking social media, oh and a bit of studying! Aussie homes have got air con, but I'm always telling Mum to go green and switch it off when we go out! My favourite meal is an Aussie barbecue. There's nothing better than cooking food over the grill outside and then playing backyard cricket. Is my life perfect? Not quite. There are some very poisonous spiders here, so we don't walk around the house with bare feet.

AUSTRALIA is the only country that is a continent. It's got a small population of 25 million. Although it's multicultural, the majority have got European heritage.
