SHARE THE MEMORIES

Our heads are full of amazing memories. Here are some of your stories.

NAOMI, 16

I was worried about my first day at my new school. I used to be shy, and I was nervous because there were lots of people I didn't know. My first day was better than I expected. Everybody was friendly, and my classes were interesting. I also met Mac. He was really relaxed and chilled. We're best friends now. He tells terrible jokes and he can be annoying, but he's never boring and thanks to him, I'm no longer shy.

My brother Krish and I used to share a bedroom. Did we use to argue? Yes, we did! I was older and tidy; he was younger and very messy. He didn't use to put anything away. One day, I tripped over his dirty football boots. There was mud all over the carpet. I got some tape and made a line across the floor. He was annoyed, but he kept his things on his side of the room. Eventually, I got my own room. It's clean, but I miss sharing with him.

ANIK, 16

JORDI, 15

I was very excited when I got my dog, Tucker. He used to sleep a lot when he was little, but he was also very active. He used to jump up and down and run around the house in the evening. Once, when he was doing this, there was a loud bang in the living room. When we entered the room, we found the TV on the floor. My parents were really annoyed. I had to take Tucker to training classes after that. We used to go every week, and now he's the perfect pet!

3 1.2 Read and listen again. Are the sentences true (T) or false (F)? Correct the false sentences.

- 1 Naomi was excited about her first day at school.
- 2 Naomi's first day was disappointing.
- 3 Anik and his brother were quite different.
- 4 Anik's brother liked the tape across the floor.
- 5 Tucker was energetic in the evening.
- 6 Jordi's mother taught the dog how to behave.

a Frank's BIG IDEA

◆ Nineteenth century

During the nineteenth century, there were many farms and coal mines in the north-east of England.

◆ 1950s

Frank Atkinson was the director of a traditional museum in the north-east of England, but he realized that traditional ways of life were disappearing, so he decided to create a new open-air museum. He wanted to show the lives of ordinary farmers and coal miners and their families, so he started to collect old objects. To do this, he asked local people for any objects, small or large. These included everyday objects and even old homes, buildings and a steam train!

◆ 1970s

Over the next few years, Frank moved miners' homes, a station, shops and a school, to a place called Beamish. He finally opened 'Beamish, the Living Museum of the North of England', in 1971.

◆ Now

Today, over 700,000 people a year visit Beamish open-air museum. To make Frank's idea come alive, there are actors in costumes in many of the buildings, so visitors can ask them questions about life in the 1820s, the 1900s and the 1940s. It's a great way to find out about daily lives in the past.

b Rate your visit

It was a fantastic experience! The Agriculture Festival was a memorable event. We saw lots of farm animals and everybody had a great time, including grandparents and small children.

We liked the mining ponies most! We also enjoyed seeing the miners' houses and the old school. The only disappointing thing was the long queue for the fish and chips.

An exciting museum with lots to explore. The 1900s town was my favourite part. Unfortunately, we arrived at 2.45 p.m., so we only had two hours there. We took some great photos, but we didn't have time to see everything.

Local residents remember . . .

I used to keep a diary when I was working in the mine. People think mines are cold, but it's very hot ... about 38°C! Harold

When I was young, my great grandad told amazing stories about ponies that used to work in the mine when he was a miner. In 1913, about 70,000 ponies worked in UK mines to help bring the coal out. Flora

My grandfather used to work on the trams as a ticket collector. He loved his job and he made a scrapbook with some old tickets in it. I still have that scrapbook! James

A special memory

WRITING A story

I can write about a special event in the past.

1 Read Luna's story. What did she learn to do?

AN UNFORGETTABLE DAY

When I was fourteen, I had a brilliant birthday.

On the day, I woke up at 6 a.m. because I was excited to see my present. However, my parents were still sleeping. While I was waiting for them, I went into the living room. There was just a card on the table, so I felt a bit disappointed. Just then, Mum and Dad came into the room. After that, I opened the card. Inside was a voucher for unicycle lessons at a circus school. I was really surprised!

Later on, I went for my first unicycle lesson. I didn't feel confident at first, so I fell off a lot. After a while, my knees hurt, but every time I fell off I got back on. At the beginning, the teacher held my arm while I cycled. Eventually, I cycled on my own. It was an unforgettable day because it was great fun and I learned to do something new!

2 Answer the questions about Luna's story.
