

7 Speaking Worksheet

FILM REVIEW

- 1 You are going to give a film review in pairs. First, talk about different films you have seen recently. Then decide which film you will review.
- 2 Complete the form with as much detail as you can about the film you've chosen. You don't have to agree in your opinions and recommendations.

Name of film
Genre
Main actors and the characters they play
Director or producer
Where it is set
Your opinion on the film:
The plot
The special effects
The acting
The characters
The pace
The sets
The music
Anything you especially liked / disliked
Whether you would recommend it. Why / Why not?

- 3 Team up with another pair of students and take turns to give your reviews, using the information you wrote in exercise 2. Ask and answer questions.

A We chose to review the new James Bond film. I hadn't seen a James Bond film before, and I thought it was amazing!

B Who's it directed by?

A It's directed by Sam Mendes.

- 4 You can use these words and expressions:

who, which, that, where, whose

... was made / directed / composed / produced by ...

It tells the story of ... / We follow ...

exciting, interesting, moving, funny, convincing, impressive, great, terrifying, slow

