

8 Speaking Worksheet

PARTY TALK

1 In pairs, plan a school party. Complete the table.

Type of party	James Bond themed party
Location
Ideas for costumes and decorations
How students will get there
Special or traditional food
Music
Party extras (photo booth, prizes, etc.)

2 Now swap pairs and take turns to do an interview. One of you writes for the school's online newsletter and one of you is the party coordinator. Follow the instructions.

Student A: You are the newsletter writer. Ask questions to find out about the party Student B is planning. Make notes of the party coordinator's answers.

Student B: You are the party coordinator. Use the information you prepared in exercise 1.

A Hi Josh! Can I ask you a few questions about the party you're organizing?

B Sure.

A How's the planning going? What type of party have you organized?

B We've planned a James Bond fancy dress party. It's going to be brilliant!

3 You can use these words and expressions:

superb, fabulous, brilliant, incredible, wonderful, amazing
Can I ask you a few questions?
Would you mind telling us about ...?
Did you say you were ...?
We're going to have over / about / at least / up to / around ...
people / special dishes / prizes

4 Swap roles and repeat the activity.

5 Now work in groups. Take it in turns to tell the group what the party coordinators said in your interviews. The party coordinators should listen carefully to make sure the writers have got the correct information.

A Josh told me that he had planned a Hollywood themed party and it was going to be brilliant.

B No, I said that we've planned a James Bond fancy dress party.
