Hi, there! My name's Amanda but my friends call me Amy. I'm fourteen and I'm an only child. I live in Mexico but I'm British. My father is a chef and he works in a famous restaurant. We live in a comfortable flat in the centre of the town. There is a large park near our home and there are lots of shops and cinemas. That's great fun for me!

I've got a room of my own. I like it because it's full of light. At the moment, I'm sharing my room with my cousin, Camila. She lives in Argentina but she is on holidays in Mexico. This is a photo of me and my friends with Camila on her first day in the city. She has got dark hair and brown eyes. She has got a black and white T-shirt and black jeans. She loves dark clothes! She is very creative and she writes articles about her trips in her blog.

My name's Luna. I'm thirteen. I've got one dog and three sisters. We are Peruvian and we live in a small house near Lima. My father is a Geography teacher and he works at university. My mother is a translator and luckily, she works in an office!

I live in a flat with my grandfather, my mother and my two sisters. I love living in the city because there are plenty of cars and shops. Obviously, there aren't any parks around, but it doesn't matter because I don't like riding my bike.

I love my bedroom. It is small and warm and I share it with my cousin. There are three beds: one for me, one for my cousin and one for any of our friends. There is a big sofa near the window and I always study there. My cousin prefers studying in the garage because there is a music player and she can listen to music. How can she concentrate?

I spend all day in front of my computer. My friends never invite me to go out because they know my answer is always 'Sorry, I can't'. But, to tell the truth, I don't like going to the cinema or eating pizza at a shopping centre. I just prefer staying at home and testing all new online games.

I love painting, dancing, singing and playing the guitar. I hate Maths and sitting on a chair for hours to complete my homework. My parents don't understand. They say I'm a dreamer. What can I do?

I don't like defining people. We all have a name, so why saying 'You're a nerd' or 'You're a leader'?

I like wearing what I see on shop windows. I feel well in designer clothes and accessories.
